

Behind every record, there are years of intensive training and the athlete's desire to produce excellent performances. Behind the result, there is profound know-how and the high precision of Swiss Timing's state-of-the-art technology.

If you have a special interest in technology and you want to participate in the future development of high level sport events ... we are looking for you!

Globally active, our company is constantly seeking for employees determined to progress and strive in a highly innovative environment.

IN ORDER TO BRING NEW IDEAS FOR INNOVATION IN OUR "CLIENT SERVICES" TEAM, WE ARE CURRENTLY RECRUITING AN (M/F/D)

INNOVATION TRAINEE

YOUR MISSION: Innovation management, without any doubt, is a strategic activity that any company performing at the top level of its sector must master in order to keep a competitive edge. At Swiss Timing, pushing the limits to better understand sports performance is an obsession and we are not short of fascinating ideas to explore and validate.

During this internship, you will contribute to the realization of Swiss Timing's innovation strategy by running Swiss Timing's innovation processes (inspired by design thinking), methods and tools. You will support exploration and de-risking of exploration projects. You would finally implement creativity techniques within Swiss Timing and our stakeholders.

Furthermore, we expect you to support planning and execution of ideation workshops with our customers. You will be in charge to formalize and validate business models and to facilitate fast-paced iterative prototyping of MVPs.

YOUR PROFIL: Passionate about sports and new technologies, you have effective communication skills and are able to present your ideas confidently and convincingly. You are pursuing a Master's degree in innovation management or similar field. Creative and focused on innovation, you are solutions oriented and team player. As an empathic and curious person, you have as core values a desire to make an impact along with flexibility, drive and courage. You are finally fluent in English, any other language would be an advantage.

WE OFFER: A challenging internship in the sports industry in a very dynamic and international company. A stimulating learning and innovative environment within great teams willing to share their knowledge.
